Sunday morning went as usual too. Went after Cora around 3:30 and when we got back (Pop and Uncle Sam didn't go) Pop said to get ready and we would go for a ride.

We got ready and started. We went to Honesdale on the new road, then on to Narrowsburg then back to Honesdale and had supper at the "Blue Lantern Tea Room" a dandy supper. We happened to spy it going through there and when we came back we stopped there. It is upstairs over a drug store.

When we came out we went on the road from Honesdale to Icoanton, and went to see Grandma and Aunt Edna. Got there around 9 o'clock or so. Started away from there around 11.

When we got up to Beckville we
